

First Nations Summit

NOTICE

DATE: September 5, 2023

TO: FNS Chiefs, Chief Negotiators, Treaty Main Tables, First Nations Organizations

FROM: First Nations Summit # PAGES: 1

RE: FIRST NATIONS SUMMIT OFFICE IS PLEASED TO WELCOME NEW STAFF, IS REOPENED TO VISITORS AND IS ONCE AGAIN AVAILABLE FOR IN-PERSON MEETING ROOM RENTALS

OFFICE REOPENING

The First Nations Summit (FNS) office is again fully open to in-person visitors. Our regular office hours are 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM Monday through Friday.

For the past years of the COVID-19 pandemic, the FNS office continued to operate and carry out our work on a hybrid basis. We appreciate the patience and understanding exercised by everyone during this time.

As of August 21, 2023, we have been open and staffed in our Reception area. We are pleased to welcome Lauryn Adolph as our new Receptionist. Lauryn is a member of the Xaxl'ip Nation.

We are also pleased to welcome our new Administrative Assistant, Marilyn Kelly. Marilyn Kelly is a member of Musqueam Indian Band.

We are also pleased to welcome Laura Guglielmin, who started as the Digital Records Clerk on September 1, 2023.

MEETING ROOM BOOKINGS

Effective immediately, we are now able to accept meeting room bookings. The FNS office is able to host small meetings of 2 – 20 participants in either our Caucus Room or Boardroom.

Please contact our Receptionist Lauryn Adolph by telephone (604) 926 9903, 1 866 990 9939 or by email (ladolph@fns.bc.ca) to inquire about rates and availability.

We look forward to once again seeing visitors in our office.